

ROYAL OAK, MICH.
TRI

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-00001R00

EVENING 44,658

APR 13 1962

CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

To Join MSUO Staff

CPYRGHT

A former CIA (Central Intelligence Agency) research man and Soviet expert was named to the Michigan State University Oakland faculty today.

He is Robert C. Howes, age 37, a CIA staff member in 1952-53 and 1958-59, former Army man with service in India and China, and a graduate and faculty man at Cornell University. A Pennsylvanian, he and his wife have four children.

At MSUO, Howes will be assistant professor of Russian language and literature.

MSUO also announced the appointments to its faculty of DuBruck will be an assistant professor of French. He was three men who will win their Ph.D. degrees this June. They are: Alfred J. DuBruck, age 39, Kalamazoo College instructor; Richard E. Quantance Jr., age 34, Duke University instructor; and John George Blair, age 27, New York.